WORK EXPERIENCE

Curious12, Durham

Digital Marketing Intern

August 2021

- Followed the team and worked under the technical director developing, managing and delivering brands through web development and design.

Sport100, Hong Kong

Coaching Instructor

September 2019 to Present

- Coached juniors aged 4-11 using sport to develop physical skills, confidence, and spoken English.
- Coached more advanced students aged 12+ fundamental basketball skills, emphasising not only learning new dynamic game skills but also having fun.
- This position taught me the importance of ensuring the students appreciated and enjoyed sport, not merely rushing them to learn sport specific skills.

Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club (RHKYC), Hong Kong

Rowing Instructor

March 2016 to Present

- A registered club Rowing Instructor to coach lessons and courses.
- RHKYC has an active youth development rowing programme, targeting youth from local and international secondary schools in Hong Kong.
- Coached in rowing sessions, teaching ages 10-18 years with varying ability levels. Occasionally assisted with rowing regattas/competitions, in organisation and implementation.

Habitual, Hong Kong

Online Digital Marketing

August to September 2019

- Worked with company founder developing ideas on how to promote the organisation to attract a younger audience. The company platform supports organisations and individuals to develop mental, physical and social health and well-being through coaching, exercise and nutrition.
- Responsible for advertising and marketing plans for attracting target market segment, working independently with guidance through regular team meetings.

Dream Sport Academy, Hong Kong

Basketball Coach

March to May 2017

- Head basketball coach for Elsa High School, Carmel School Association, an international school in Hong Kong. Coached Under14 to Under20 boys, leading the U20 team from the bottom of their basketball division to runner-up position. Coaching my own team showed me the essentials of building teamwork, motivation and morale, both individually and together, and the importance to learn and build through both good and difficult times.

TMAX Group Limited , Hong Kong

Business Internship Programme

February to March 2017

- Rotation in sourcing, product development and production for multinational brands in the toy industry.
- Gave me access to supply chain management and an overview of the business process, taste of management with different management styles.
- Visited offices and factories in China to experience first-hand the product development/design, production, and quality control aspects of the industry.
- This internship enthused the idea of a business element to my future.

Melbourne High School, Melbourne, Australia

Rowing Instructor

October to November 2016

- Affiliated with Sport Lived, a UK programme providing sporting gap years abroad.
- Attained my Australian community coach and Level 2 rowing coach qualifications in Australia.
- Coached rowing crews under Paul McGann, Olympian rowing cox, in Melbourne High School whilst being coached myself at Banks Rowing Club and Mercantile Rowing Club, Melbourne.
- This experience not only gave me an appreciation of how Australia promotes and supports sports but also gave me practical skills in independence and self-discipline.

StartJG, Hong Kong

Digital Design Internship

September to October 2016

- Worked on specialised branding and interactive design in this brand/design consultancy, with strong digital and retail branding capabilities in the Asian market. Part of the creative team working on a client project for a navigation tablet for a business building, using my A-Level Fine Art skills in a business context.
